The advertisement features a central image of a woman sitting on a custom motorcycle, viewed from above. The motorcycle is highly detailed with chrome and custom parts. The woman is wearing a dark, form-fitting outfit. The background is white, and the entire scene is framed by a jagged, torn-paper border with a glowing orange and yellow flame effect. In the top left corner, there is a black, torn-paper shape containing a white logo and the text 'GUILTY CUSTOMS'. Below this, the headline 'Sinfully hot...' is written in a serif font. A bulleted list of three items follows, and at the bottom, the contact information is provided.
