New York Kids Club Founder, Pam Wolf wins Stevie Award for Best Business Mentor

PRLog – Nov 15, 2008 – The 2008 Stevie Awards for Women in Business is an international competition recognizing the accomplishments of outstanding women executives, business owners, and the organizations they run. The awards are produced by the creators of the prestigious American Business AwardsSM.

Stevie Awards were handed out in categories including Best Entrepreneur, Best Executive, Lifetime Achievement, and Women Helping Women at the gala event at New York's Marriott Marquis Hotel on November 14. More than 1,200 entries from organizations of all sizes and in virtually every industry were submitted for consideration.

Mentoring is an integral part of Ms. Wolf's mission as visionary leader of New York's premiere enrichment center with six locations for children ages 6 months – 12 years.”
“Mentoring is a gift that benefits both the mentor and mentee; it has always been a passion of mine,” shares the award winning leader.

The Stevie Awards for Women in Business are governed by a Board of Distinguished Judges & Advisors that features many leading women entrepreneurs and luminaries in business. Members of the Awards' Board selected Stevie winners from among the finalists. Finalists were chosen by business professionals worldwide during the preliminary judging period.
