BOGO Printing Announces Launch of New Feature-Rich Website

Places New Online Design, Preview, Print Tools at Customers' Fingertips

March 14, 2011, ORLANDO, FL – BOGO Printing (www.bogoprinting.com), a premier Online Printing Services provider, announces the launch of a new website to streamline the design, preview, print process online. The new site uses printing-on-demand technology to provide even the most novice users with powerful templates and design tools to create a wide variety professional printed marketing materials.

“Our new site allows you to design your own materials by using our online templates and tools.” said Joe Forgét, President/CEO. “Our customers told us what would improve their overall experience and we listened. It’s now quicker and easier than ever to design and print professional materials online.”

The new site, launch on March 11, 2011, offers an extensive catalog of design templates which allows users to develop their own professional business cards, brochures, flyers, postcards and more. To celebrate the launch of the new site, BOGO Printing is pleased to offer a 10% Off coupon code for all orders placed before April 15, 2011. Simply enter coupon code is LAUNCH-2011 at checkout.
