ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Efrem Lynch, born and raised in Dallas, Texas, has traveled extensively. A Renaissance man, he is also a well-known singer and songwriter. Lynch is a Southern Methodist University graduate and operations manager for the country's largest transportation company. While attending SMU he reunited himself with three things he enjoys in life: writing, poetry and music.

THOUGHTS IN VISION

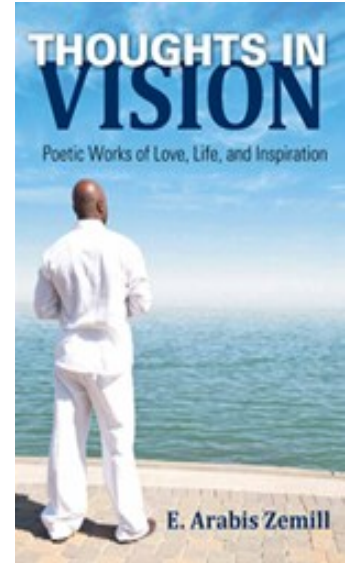

Poetic Works of Love, Life, and Inspiration

ABOUT THE BOOK

This collection of poetic works, that is before you, is the sum total of a continued excursion through the many journeys of life. It is a train that begins at the depot of your imagination, whose stops include, love personified with all its splendor, beauty and passion, life and its struggles from humble beginnings to celebrated moments of achievement.

It is inspired thoughts that speak to the pain and perseverance of surviving a world not made to fit the mold of a fairy tale ending. It is poetry that says get on board this train called life.

Your going to love reading poems such as; Family, Lust, Old School, Talk to Me, Why and many more! Beautifully written, Thoughts In Vision will move, inspire and entertain you. Thought provoking and reflective!

"E. A. Zemill writes with phenomenal depth and imagery. He's a bad man."

-Eric Dickerson, NFL Hall of Famer

"Your wisdom for love and inspiration is like sitting on the beach watching the sunrise. Now, you are the one to rise."

- Monica Johnson, VP, Epitome Magazine
