About the Business Coach

Frank Goley has many years experience as a consultant, entrepreneur and business owner. He has written business, marketing, strategic and financial plans; consulted with numerous companies in all growth stages in a wide range of industries; and learned through experience what makes a successful business.

Frank has developed proprietary business success processes for both business planning and consulting services with any type of business to bring measurable, successful results. Writing a business plan or giving some consulting advice really is only 50% of our work. The remaining 50% comes as Frank stays in contact with you to ensure successful implementation of that plan or advice over time, so you can truly tap his level of experience and expertise.

No business coach or plan is right 100% of the time—NEVER! This is why it is important to have an experienced business coach to work with you on correcting any issues or misdirection upon roll out. It is the value and experience of a business coach that really becomes important when the plan or advice is implemented. Moreover, seeing what the consultant does when things need improvement or re-working will be the tell-tale sign of his or her experience and success level. When you engage the services of ABC Business Consulting rest assured you are receiving experienced help who will stick by your side to help ensure your business is as successful as possible over time, not just today or tomorrow...
