- Our services include online course development, facilitation and interactive programming

- We can develop online courses for any LMS or educational portal.

- We provide training in instructional design and blended learning for your staff

- ePublications are the newest medium for publishing training materials that do not need Internet connectivity.

Use technology to improve learning and to reduce the cost of employee training. Online courses provide a consistent curriculum that employees can also use as reference materials.

Our staff has 30 years of experience in education and 15 years of experience in online course development. We have developed courses for education, business and government agencies.

What are your training needs?

Do you need training for HR topics, safety, work flow, educational courses (k-16), employee training, customer training or product use training?
