Book Summary

Synopsis

“Spiritual Poetry is written to display beauty of thought and language in the fullness of its expression. It is intended to stimulate and influence us mentally, emotionally, and most of all spiritually.

The God-breathed word of God or the doctrine of inspiration affirms that the words chosen by spiritual poets of now, and then were indeed chosen by god to convey his message to mankind.”

“Be not content with someone else’s definition of you, be not content until you are happy with the unique person, as God has created you”
