

We are pleased to announce the unveiling of our new brand, Pacific Gate Partners, focused exclusively on cross-border transactions for Western Technology companies in the China market.

Effective, January 9th, 2019, the company officially changed its name and company brand to Pacific Gate Partners, LLC from Agave. Furthermore, the company's FINRA regulated US broker-dealer subsidiary is renamed Pacific Gate Advisors, LLC and China WFOE is renamed Pacific Gate China. The rebranding represents the firm's commitment to the success of cross-border deals between the US and China.

"We have chosen to rebrand our company to let the market know we are 100% committed to being the leading advisor in cross-border deals between China and the US," said Mr. Huan Wang, Pacific Gate's China Managing Partner. "We choose the name Pacific Gate to illustrate our belief that the future of successful technology deals flow across the Pacific Ocean and the word "Gate" represents bi-lateral access for mutual prosperity."

"The roots of our company have always been in cross-border advisory for technology companies," US Managing Partner Robert Marassa said. "China and the US represent the two largest and most dynamic economies in the world with technology sectors that are highly interdependent. Despite the current political climate, we are finding tremendous opportunities for our clients."

About Pacific Gate Partners

Pacific Gate Partners is a leading independent investment bank specializing in cross-border transactions between western technology companies and China. Pacific Gate Partners advises high-growth technology companies, offering a wide range of Joint Venture, M&A and strategic capital raising advisory services. Its domain expertise and cross-border transactional experience, along with the technical know-how of China market uniquely position Pacific Gate Partners as a premium partner to its clients planning to expand their business in Asia. The firm has offices in Beijing, Chicago, and San Jose.

Contact

Umair Khalid

+1 630 352 0469

ukhalid@pacificgatepartners.com

www.pacificgatepartners.com