

Small businesses are the backbone of the American economy.

Comer Capital Group will be assisting small businesses to obtain the necessary capital to remain functional through the SBA Disaster Loan Assistance Program.

WHO WE ARE

Comer Capital Group is an independent financial advisory firm that delivers holistic and innovative financial solutions to our clients and the communities we serve. As a boutique firm, we understand that no client is the same and thus provide customized services that produce superior results and ensure our clients meet their long-term financial and operational goals. Our professionals bring a level of expertise and commitment that goes far beyond the call of duty. The Comer Capital Group guiding principles – integrity, dedication, and transparency – are present in every engagement.

HELPING

The Comer Capital team will work with clients to prepare and submit all necessary paperwork to provide your business the best chance of obtaining these necessary funds.

PARTNERS

Comer Capital has enlisted the expertise of RAM Firm to ensure our clients are compliant and financial data is provided according to SBA programs. RAM Firm has decades of experience working with entrepreneurs and small business owners providing the highest level of accounting and bookkeeping services.

PROVING

Comer Capital Group has advised our country's most vital employers (small businesses, non-profits and local governments) on debt transactions in excess of $2.5 billion. Our understanding of debt markets and business finance, regular interaction with government agencies and their various loan programs, and relationships with banking institutions has uniquely positioned us to help businesses access the capital they need during this crisis.
