"COMING TO AMERICA"

BM RELOCATES

January 8th, 2023 (Los Angeles, CA)- Congolese artist BM has relocated to America. He is a newlywed and has acclimated well to his new environment. He is no stranger to the U.S.A. as he has performed in 24 states.

Like any other global sensation, BM has a team working with him. He has joined forces with Power To Connect LLC, a team of two: Jason Anderson and Chirondala Maduka to ensure the vitality of his music career moving forward.

New music and shows are lined up for 2023. Creator of the song "Rosalina", his biggest hit transcending the borders of DRC up to BBC News, he won't stop bringing that same energy.

"I look forward to collaborating with other artist and bring dance challenges back into the mainstream with new music." - BM

"I've been learning how to balance music and family." - BM

WHO IS BM?

BM's voice transcends language and cultural barriers—an instrument used to bring awareness to the Congolese rhythms, dances and national language, Lingala. He's also known as the "Sound of Congo".

Congo born and London raised, BM has found a way to present a blend of cultural sounds into his music, Not only does he sing, he plays the piano, produces and is an exceptional dancer. African Music Magazine and Chop Daily established BM as the dance challenge king of social media. "Ye Le" is the hottest afro-beat dance challenge out right now. He has performed with Davido, Eddie Kenzo to name a few.
